2. Candidates should be present in the examination hall at least five minutes before the scheduled time. A candidate coming late for more than half an hour from the commencement of the examination shall not be admitted.
3. Candidates are prohibited from introducing into the examination hall any books, notes, portion of book, pocket computers, manuscript, or paper of any description. They are also prohibited from communicating with or copying from each other and from communicating with any person outside the examination hall. Violation of these rules will amount to malpractice and appropriate action will be taken in such cases.
4. No candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination hall till the expiry of half an hour after the commencement of the examination and no candidate who leaves the examination hall during the period of examination will be allowed to return for that part of the examination. In case of unavoidable reasons, a candidate with the special permission of the Chief/Assistant Superintendents, may leave the examination room temporarily, but during his or her stay outside he or she must be under the surveillance of a trustworthy person to be deputed by the Chief Superintendent for that purpose.
5. Candidates must provide themselves with pens, pencils and drawing materials.
6. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned for the examination. The entrance of persons not connected with the examination into the examination hall is strictly forbidden. Candidates should not leave their seats without the permission of the Chief Superintendent/Assistant Superintendent before conclusion of the Examination.
7. Every candidate should write his/her Register Number legibly in the space provided for this, and candidates should not make any objectionable, improper or irrelevant remarks or signs on his/her answer books.
8. Candidates should leave the answer book in their seats before leaving the examination hall.
9. Strict silence should be maintained in the examination hall.
