THIRUVANANTHAPURAM – 695 011

No.B2/4500/2011/DME

Dated:29.06.2011

Notification

The final allotment process for the PG Medical (MD/MS/Diploma) Courses 2011, which was scheduled to commence from 09.00 am on 30.06.2011 is rescheduled to 12.00 noon on the same day. Interim direction from the Hon'ble Supreme Court/High Court is expected by noon.

There will be a fresh final round allotment and hence all the allotments and admissions made on 28.06.2011 stands cancelled. The service quota admissions done on 28.06.2011 will not be affected. All the candidates who got allotment on 28.06.2011 are required to attend the counseling on 30.06.2011.

Unfilled seats under reservation categories will be converted to General Merit after the whole allotment of the respective quotas. Arising vacancies under AIQ during the allotment process will also be filled during the process. So the candidates interested in the unavailed seats under reservation quotas and AIQ surrendered seats are required to be present in the counseling hall during the process.

The candidates attending the allotment process must produce the admit card/valid photo identity card along with other required documents.

Candidates will have to produce all the original certificates as mentioned in the Prospectus. However in the case of candidates, who had already secured admission in a Government Medical College in Kerala, documents substantiating their admission in that college shall be produced in lieu of the original certificates. Candidates who get allotment on 30.06.2011 will have to take admission on that day itself at the allotment centre. Such candidates will have to remit the required fees, as per Prospectus, in the allotment centre. However in the case of candidates who already got admission in Kerala, tuition fees will be adjusted. Selected candidates will also have to execute the bond as stipulated in the Prospectus.

Those who discontinue the course after the final allotment will have to pay the liquidated damages as mentioned in the Prospectus.
