No.B2/4500/2010/DME

Dated:21.05.2010

Notification

As per the available information, there is an extended counseling under All India Quota for the Medical/Dental PG Courses 2010. The unavailed seats under AIQ can be reverted to State quota only after the extended counseling of AIQ. Accordingly the second/final allotment process of the state quota will be done only after June 22nd. The classes for the 2010 batch will commence only after the second/final allotment process of the state quota. Service quota candidates who were earlier directed to relieve from their departments on 30.05.2010 need not relieve on that day. They may be relieved only on the day prior to the commencement of the classes. The notification for second/final allotment process under state quota and the date of commencement of classes shall be published by June 20th.
