No.B2/20300/2010/DME

Dated:09.09.2010

Notification

The first round allotment process of the General Merit category and Health Services Quota candidates of PG Super Speciality (DM/M.Ch) Courses 2010 was conducted on 10.08.2010. Candidates who had taken allotment on 10.08.2010 were given provisional allotment letter and were instructed that admission will be done only after Hon'ble High Court permits for the same and also that allotment memo will be issued on getting further orders from the High Court.

Now the Hon'ble High Court of Kerala vide its interim order dated 06.09.2010 in WP(c) 24829/2010 & related cases has allowed to complete admission process to all seats except the 6(six) seats set apart for candidates who have done one year compulsory rural service/Senior residency/Government service as mentioned in the amended Clause V of the Prospectus relating to distribution of seats as per G.O(Rt) No.2972/2010/H&FWD dated 31.07.2010.

Accordingly all the candidates who were given provisional allotment letter on 10.08.2010, except the five candidates who were allotted to the seats which are specifically earmarked for those who have done one year compulsory rural service/Senior residency/Government service, are instructed to collect the allotment memo from the Directorate of Medical Education and report before the concerned Medical College on or before 18.09.2010.

If any of the candidates do not report on or before 18.09.2010 in the concerned college, it will be deemed as a vacancy and further allotment will be made to that seat from the waitlist.

The date of commencement of the class will be informed in due course.

The details are available in the website "www.dme.kerala.gov.in".
